

Disciplinary Policy

1. About This Policy & Procedure

1.1. The aims of this Disciplinary Procedure is to provide a framework within which managers can work with employees to maintain satisfactory standards of conduct and to encourage improvement where necessary. The standards of conduct expected of all employees are set out in the Disciplinary Rules which are appended to this procedure.

1.2. Our policy ensures that any disciplinary matter is dealt with fairly and that steps are taken to establish the facts and to give employees the opportunity to respond before taking any formal action. The procedure applies to all employees regardless of length of service. It does not apply to agency workers or self-employed contractors.

1.3. This procedure is used to deal with misconduct. It does not apply to cases involving genuine sickness absence, proposed redundancies or poor performance. In those cases reference should be made to the appropriate policy or procedure.

1.4. This procedure does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time. This policy is therefore non-contractual. We may also vary this procedure, including any time limits, as appropriate in any case.

2. Minor Conduct Issues

2.1. Minor conduct issues can often be resolved informally between you and your line manager. These discussions should be held in private and without undue delay whenever there is cause for concern. In some cases an informal verbal warning may be given, which will not form part of your disciplinary records. Formal steps will be taken under this procedure if the matter is not resolved, or if informal discussion is not appropriate (for example, because of the seriousness of the allegation).

2.2. If you have difficulty at any stage of the procedure because of a disability, you should discuss the situation with your line manager or a member of Genesis cte Human Resources Department as soon as possible.

3. Confidentiality

3.1. Our aim is to deal with disciplinary matters sensitively and with due respect for the privacy of any individuals involved. All employees must treat as confidential any information communicated to them in connection with an investigation or disciplinary matter.

3.2. You, and anyone accompanying you (including witnesses), must not make electronic recordings of any meetings or hearings conducted under this procedure.

3.3. You will normally be told the names of any witnesses whose evidence is relevant to disciplinary proceedings against you, unless we believe that a witness's identity should remain confidential.

4. Investigations

4.1. The purpose of an investigation is for us to establish a fair and balanced view of the facts relating to any disciplinary allegations against you, before deciding whether to proceed with a disciplinary hearing. The amount of investigation required will depend on the nature of the allegations and will vary from case to case. It may involve interviewing and taking statements from you and any witnesses, and/or reviewing relevant documents.

4.2. Investigative interviews are solely for the purpose of fact-finding and no decision on disciplinary action will be taken until after a disciplinary hearing has been held.

4.3. You do not normally have the right to bring a companion to an investigative interview. However, we may allow you to bring a companion if it helps you to overcome any disability, or any difficulty in understanding English.

4.4. You must co-operate fully and promptly in any investigation. This will include informing us of the names of any relevant witnesses, disclosing any relevant documents to us and attending investigative interviews if required.

5. Criminal Allegations

5.1. Where your conduct is the subject of a criminal investigation, charge or conviction we will investigate the facts before deciding whether to take formal disciplinary action.

5.2. We will not usually wait for the outcome of any prosecution before deciding what action, if any, to take. Where you are unable or have been advised not to attend a disciplinary hearing or say anything about a pending criminal matter, we may have to take a decision based on the available evidence.

5.3. A criminal investigation, charge or conviction relating to conduct outside work may be treated as a disciplinary matter if we consider that it is relevant to your employment.

6. Suspension

6.1. In some circumstances we may need to suspend you from work. The suspension will be for no longer than is necessary to investigate the allegations and we will confirm the arrangements to you in writing. While suspended you should not visit our premises or contact any of our clients, customers, suppliers, contractors or staff, unless you have been authorised to do so by the Headteacher.

6.2. Suspension of this kind is not a disciplinary penalty and does not imply that any decision has already been made about the allegations. You will continue to receive your full [basic] salary and benefits during the period of suspension.

7. Notification of a Hearing

7.1. Following any investigation, if we consider there are grounds for disciplinary action, you will be required to attend a disciplinary hearing. We will inform you in writing of the allegations against you, the basis for those allegations, and what the likely range of consequences will be if we decide after the hearing that the allegations are true. We will also include the following where appropriate:

- A summary of relevant information gathered during the investigation
- A copy of any relevant documents which will be used at the disciplinary hearing
- A copy of any relevant witness statements, except where a witness's identity is to be kept confidential, in which case we will give you as much information as possible while maintaining confidentiality
- We will give you written notice of the date, time and place of the disciplinary hearing

8. The Right to be Accompanied

8.1. You may bring a companion to any disciplinary hearing or appeal hearing under this procedure. The companion may be either a trade union representative or a colleague.

8.2. A companion is allowed reasonable time off from duties without loss of pay but no-one is obliged to act as a companion if they do not wish to do so.

8.3. If your companion is unavailable at the time a meeting is scheduled and will not be available for more than five working days afterwards, we may ask you to choose someone else.

9. Procedure at Disciplinary Hearings

9.1. If you or your companion cannot attend the hearing you should inform us immediately and we will arrange an alternative time. You must make every effort to attend the hearing, and failure to attend without good reason may be treated as misconduct in itself. If you fail to attend without good reason, or are persistently unable to do so (for example for health reasons), we may have to take a decision based on the available evidence.

9.2. The hearing will be chaired by [The Headteacher or Director]. [The Investigating Officer AND/OR a member of the Human Resources Department] will also be present. You may bring a companion with you to the disciplinary hearing (see paragraph 8).

9.3. At the disciplinary hearing we will go through the allegations against you and the evidence that has been gathered. You will be able to respond and present any evidence of your own.

9.4. We may adjourn the disciplinary hearing if we need to carry out any further investigations such as re-interviewing witnesses in the light of any new points you have raised at the hearing. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to consider any new information obtained before the hearing is reconvened.

9.5. We will inform you in writing of our decision and our reasons for it, usually within 7 working days of the disciplinary hearing.

10. Disciplinary Penalties

10.1. The usual penalties for misconduct are set out below. No penalty should be imposed without a hearing. We aim to treat all employees fairly and consistently, and a penalty imposed on another employee for similar misconduct will usually be taken into account but should not be treated as a precedent. Each case will be assessed on its own merits.

10.2. You will not normally be dismissed for a first act of misconduct, unless we decide it amounts to gross misconduct or you have not yet completed your probationary period.

Stage 1 - First Written Warning: A first written warning may only be authorised by the Headteacher. It will usually be appropriate for a first act of misconduct where there are no other active written warnings on your disciplinary record.

Stage 2 - Final Written Warning: A final written warning may be authorised by the Headteacher. It will usually be appropriate for:

- Misconduct where there is already an active written warning on your record
- Misconduct that we consider sufficiently serious to warrant a final written warning even though there are no other active warnings on your record

Stage 3 – Dismissal: Dismissal may be authorised by the Headteacher. It will usually only be appropriate for:

- Misconduct during your probationary period
- Further misconduct where there is an active final written warning on your record
- Any gross misconduct, regardless of whether there are active warnings on your record. Gross misconduct will usually result in immediate dismissal without notice or payment in lieu of notice (summary dismissal). Examples of gross misconduct are set out in our Disciplinary Rules, which are appended to this procedure

Alternatives to Dismissal:

10.3. In some cases we may at our discretion consider alternatives to dismissal. These may be authorised by the Headteacher and will usually be accompanied by a final written warning. Examples include:

- Demotion
- Transfer to another department or job
- A period of suspension without pay
- Loss of seniority
- Reduction in pay

- Loss of future pay increment or bonus

11. The Effect of a Warning

11.1. Written warnings will set out the nature of the misconduct, the change in behaviour required, the period for which the warning will remain active, and the likely consequences of further misconduct in that active period.

11.2. A first written warning will usually remain active for six-months and a final written warning will usually remain active for 12-months. [In exceptional cases verging on gross misconduct [OR DETAILS OF COMPANY SPECIFIC MISCONDUCT WHICH MAY WARRANT INDEFINITE WARNINGS SUCH AS DANGEROUS BREACHES OF HEALTH & SAFETY], a final written warning may state that it will remain active indefinitely. [Conduct may be reviewed at the end of a warning's active period and if it has not improved sufficiently we may decide to extend the active period.]

11.3. After the active period, the warning will remain permanently on your personnel file but will be disregarded in deciding the outcome of future disciplinary proceedings.

12. Appeals

12.1. You can appeal the decision in writing, stating your full grounds of appeal, to the CEO within one week of the date on which you were informed of the decision.

12.2. If you are appealing against dismissal, the date on which dismissal takes effect will not be delayed pending the outcome of the appeal. However, if your appeal is successful you will be reinstated with no loss of continuity or pay.

12.3. If you raise any new matters in your appeal, we may need to carry out further investigation. If any new information comes to light we will provide you with a summary including, where appropriate, copies of additional relevant documents and witness statements. You will have a reasonable opportunity to consider this information before the hearing, and you or your companion may comment on any new evidence arising during the appeal before any decision is taken. You will be given written notice of the date, time and place of the appeal hearing.

12.4. The appeal hearing may be a complete re-hearing of the matter or it may be a review of the fairness of the original decision in the light of the procedure that was followed and any new information that may have come to light. This will be at our discretion depending on the circumstances of your case. In any event the appeal will be dealt with as impartially as possible.

12.5. Where possible, the appeal hearing will be conducted impartially by a [more senior] manager who has not been previously involved in the case. [The Investigating Officer AND/OR a member of the Human Resources Department AND/OR the person who conducted the disciplinary hearing] will also usually be present. You may bring a companion with you to the appeal hearing (see paragraph 8).

12.6. We may adjourn the appeal hearing if we need to carry out any further investigations in the light of any new points you have raised at the hearing. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to consider any new information obtained before the hearing is reconvened.

12.7. Following the appeal hearing we may:

- Confirm the original decision
- Revoke the original decision
- Substitute a different penalty

12.8. We will inform you in writing of our final decision as soon as possible, usually within 7-working-days of the appeal hearing, but this could be extended depending on the individual case. There will be no further right of appeal.

13. Policy Statement

13.1. These Disciplinary Rules should be read in conjunction with our Disciplinary Procedure. The aim of the Disciplinary Rules and Disciplinary Procedure is to set out the standards of conduct expected of all staff and to provide a framework within which managers can work with staff to maintain those standards and encourage improvement where necessary.

13.2. It is our policy to ensure that any disciplinary matter is dealt with fairly and in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedure. If you are in any doubt as to your responsibilities or the standards of conduct expected you should speak to your line manager (or Human Resources).

13.3. These rules have been agreed following consultation with staff. We may amend our Disciplinary Rules at any time following consultation with staff.

14. Rules of Conduct

14.1. While working for us you should at all times maintain professional and responsible standards of conduct. In particular, you should:

- Observe the terms and conditions of your Contract of Employment, particularly with regard to hours of work and confidentiality
- Ensure that you understand and follow the Code of Conduct (which is set out in the Staff Handbook)
- Observe all our policies, procedures and regulations which are included in the Staff Handbook or notified to you from time-to-time by means of notice boards, e-mail, or otherwise
- Take reasonable care in respect of the health and safety of pupils, colleagues and third parties (and comply with the Health & Safety Policy)
- Comply with all reasonable instructions given by senior staff
- Act at all times in good faith and in the best interests of the company, the school, the pupils, staff and others

14.2. Failure to maintain satisfactory standards of conduct may result in action being taken under our Disciplinary Procedure

15. Misconduct

15.1. The following are examples of matters that will normally be regarded as misconduct and will be dealt with under our Disciplinary Procedure:

- Minor breaches of our policies [including the Sickness Absence Policy, Information Technology & Use of the Internet Policy, and Health & Safety Policy]
- Minor breaches of your Contract of Employment
- Damage to, or unauthorised use of, our property
- Poor timekeeping
- Time wasting
- Unauthorised absence from work
- Dangerous, reckless driving (including speeding)
- Misuse of Alcohol or Drugs
- Refusal to follow instructions
- Excessive use of our telephones for personal calls
- Excessive personal e-mail, social media or internet usage

- Refusal to disclose any of the information required by your employment or any other information that may have a bearing on the performance of your duties
- Giving false information as to criminal record, qualifications or entitlement to work (including immigration status) in order to gain employment or other benefits
- Knowingly taking parental, paternity or adoption leave when not eligible to do so or for a purpose other than supporting a child
- Making a disclosure of false or misleading information under our Whistleblowing Policy maliciously, for personal gain, or otherwise in bad faith
- Making untrue allegations in bad faith against a colleague or pupil
- Victimising a colleague who has raised concerns, made a complaint or given evidence or information under our Whistleblowing Policy, Anti-corruption and bribery policy, Anti-harassment and Bullying Policy, Grievance Procedure, Disciplinary Procedure or otherwise
- Serious misuse of our information technology systems (including misuse of developed or licensed software, use of unauthorised software and misuse of e-mail and the internet), contrary to our Information Technology & Use of the Internet Policy
- Undertaking unauthorised paid or unpaid employment during your working hours
- Unauthorised entry into an area of the premises to which access is prohibited

16.2. This list is intended as a guide and is not exhaustive.

17. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed every 24-months. It was reviewed in October 2020 and will be reviewed again on or before September 2022.
